Nicole Sax Joins AAM as Marketing & Business Development Manager

TEMPE, Ariz. (Aug. 26, 2011) – AAM LLC, a community management company that operates in Arizona and New Mexico, has hired Nicole Sax as its marketing and business development manager.

Sax will support and execute initiatives intended to introduce AAM's services to homebuilders and developers, as well as HOA boards of directors. She also will coordinate public relations and community outreach activities.

Sax joins AAM from ROI Properties in Phoenix, where she was an account manager handling a large portfolio of bank-owned assets. Her marketing and account management career spans more than a decade, primarily in the residential real estate industry.

Sax, a Phoenix resident, holds a bachelors degree in marketing from Metropolitan State College in Denver, Colo. She also is a licensed real estate agent in Arizona.

About AAM

AAM's system of community support has provided more personal attention and expert care per customer dollar than any other homeowners' association management team for over 20 years. Better workload ratios and the longevity of AAM managers ensure each community will be managed by an industry leader who will treat it as their own. Homeowners can expect all AAM professionals to be able to answer the same 193 community management-related questions and to attend HOA meetings in person. A 24/7 emergency pager is just one example of AAM's daily dedication to developing lasting client relationships and delivering peace of mind.
