

MEDIA ALERT

Contact: Jennifer Avrhami
Sarah Sbordone
MindSpace Advertising & PR
480-941-8497

UNDERSTANDING HOA BUDGETS
AAM Hosts Free Seminars

PHOENIX (July 29, 2010) – AAM LLC, Arizona’s most respected homeowners’ association management company, which was launched in December 1990, is hosting a free educational seminar on Saturday, August 28th from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. The seminar, which is open to homeowners, HOA board members and community developers, will focus on the economy’s effect on HOA budgets, the general budget process and common budget mistakes to avoid. Presenters will share expertise and answer questions in a casual format.

Continental breakfast will be served and the seminar will be offered at four convenient locations, including:

- East Valley - Courtyard Phoenix Mesa, 1221 S. Westwood, Mesa
- West Valley - Glendale Residence Inn, 7350 N. Zanjero Blvd., Glendale
- Central - Courtyard Phoenix Camelback, 2101 E. Camelback Rd., Phoenix
- Tucson- Courtyard Tucson Williams Centre, 201 S. Williams Blvd., Tucson

To RSVP, call 602-288-2615 or email RSVP@AAMAZ.com.

About AAM

AAM’s system of community support has provided more personal attention and expert care per customer dollar than any other homeowners’ association management team for over 20 years. Better workload ratios and the longevity of AAM community managers ensure each community will be managed by an industry leader who will treat it as their own. Homeowners can expect all AAM professionals to be able to answer the same 193 community-related questions and to attend HOA meetings in person. A 24/7 emergency pager is just one example of AAM’s daily dedication to developing lasting client relationships and delivering peace of mind. For more information, visit <http://www.AAMAZ.com/>

###